

Word received on Sunday 12th July 09

Speaker: Donna Leppitt

Thank you Clive and Jane for inviting me back. It is always a good sign, when you are invited back to speak.

It is just lovely to see what God has done in your midst in this short space of time. The joy of the Lord is in the house, His presence is here and I am delighted to come today and to share with you some things which are on my heart.

Now I was going to bring a message, but God had other plans and this morning and he gave me, I believe, a word for your church, so I'm going to start off today and I'm going to read it out and then maybe I will talk about it a little afterwards. So this is hot off the press, and let's see what God wants to say to us all.

You may want to close your eyes; you may just want to listen to experience the Lord speaking to your spirits right now, Just let this go down deep.

And just want to start off by praying.

Father we want to honour you in all that we do. Thank you Father that you are here in our midst.

Thank you Father the joy is in this house. Thank you Father that this body of people loves to worship you and loves to express their heart to you.

So father this word that I bring, Lord I pray that the people will go away and test it, and anything that is not of you I pray that will just fall null and void to the floor.

But Father, that which is of you, Lord I pray will take root in people's spirits and it will stir their hearts they will go forth.

In Jesus name, amen

Church, I am with you, I want to establish you as my people. I want to bring you forth. I want to carry you through times that are tough. I want to be there for you every step of the way.

Know that I am God. Know I will deliver you. Know that I love you that I am strong, and I want to make you strong. So that you are courageous. So that you all know that it is not about might, and that it's not about power, but it is about my spirit delivering you. I will rescue you and I will deliver you, out of the hands of your enemies.

Whatever test you face, whatever circumstances you are in, I am with you. But know this I am good, all the time.

This church is about to explode, in all areas of giftings. I am about to move in your midst in a mighty way. I want to see my Kingdom established amongst you. I want that your foundation be firm enough to take all that I want to build on you. So search your hearts because if there is anything in there but I cannot build upon, then let me take it away. I do not want you to fail, I want you to prosper and I want you to be successful.

Success in my eyes is doing what I have called you to do; I am calling you out each and every one of you to step up a gear. Embrace this next level. To some it may seem daunting, to others it may seem exciting, but know this I am a good God and I move with purpose, always with the best interests of my people in mind, and I do love to give good gifts to my children, so ask me what you desire and I will give you the desires of your heart.

I will train you, and equip you to be a force to be reckoned with against your enemy. You will plunder the enemy's camp, just like Jehoshaphat. I will make it easy to you to accomplish that call upon your life as a body of people, as a church, you are called out from among the world from among your community and I will make you a royal priesthood.

Ones that will love me ones that will set themselves apart for me, ones that will desire me all their heart. In that place of seeking first my Kingdom, you will see amazing things. You will be blessed in that land that I'm giving you to possess. I say go in and possess the land. I say go in and slay the Giants.

I say take up your sword and advance. This is not a time to hold back, but the time to take back what the enemy has stolen from you. Your territory is the battle of the mind. Your land that I am calling you to possess is not some ethereal place, it exists it is between your ears. Wrong mindsets have forced you to believe you cannot be victorious, and has caused you to doubt in the holy one of Israel.

But know this I am calling you could be overcomers, to be champions, to be giant slayers, like David. So when the Lions roar comes who can stand against you? I am like a mighty wind, I cause a tossing and a turning and I remove debris as I clear away rubbish and dirt.

The enemy is nothing to me; he is insignificant as a little dirt under my feet. You need to take hold of the fact that I am the God of the impossible and that everyone must bow the knee to the sound of my name. I want you to be victorious and to use the authority he that I've given you to yield that mighty sword and penetrate the darkness. To pierce the very atmosphere with my words of truth.

For the truth will set you free, it will set the captives free. Take no prisoners when you go in to possess the land. Destroy them completely, lest they rise up to retaliate. Get your houses in order, let my wind blow over your life and remove all signs of debris and dirt.

Let me cleanse you and wash you and make you whiter than snow. There is a call upon your life, as a people to be pure, to be a spotless bride. Without wrinkle, without blemish, so when do you start preparing for that day, if not now.

I want you to be a righteous people, sold out for me, passionate for me, hungry for me, desperate to see me move. Now when your agenda becomes my agenda, I will pour out my spirit upon you in a mighty way, such that you will be amazed. And this will be a sign of my love for you.
